Bryan K. McQuade,
LEED Green
Associate
Architectural Sales &
Service

Responsibilities

As Architectural Sales and Service Consultant for Atlas Door and Hardware, Bryan works closely with architects and contractors to specify, procure and install doors and hardware components for new construction and renovation projects.

Bryan joined Atlas Door and Hardware in 2015 and has 28 years of commercial door and hardware sales experience and numerous top door sales and achievement awards. In previous positions he served as Business Development Manager, Architectural Consultant, LEED Champion, and Contract Sales.

Areas of Expertise

Bryan's thorough product and building code knowledge helps ensure that Atlas customers receive accurate door and hardware specifications, timely submittals and on-time installation. Bryan's expertise includes wood and metal door and frame fabrication and installation; hardware lines, aluminum storefront doors and frames; glass openings; finishes, specifications and installation; door schedules; takeoffs and estimating; procurement; and project management. Clients especially appreciate Bryan's green building product knowledge.

Professional Certifications and Affiliations

Bryan is a LEED Green Associate through the U.S. Green Building Council and affiliated with the Door and Hardware Institute (DHI) and Construction Specifications Institute (CSI).

Education and Training

Bryan attended Hocking College, completing coursework in computer science and ceramic engineering. He has advanced sales training from the IBM Sales School. Bryan completed coursework to earn and maintain his LEED Green Associate designation. He is a Certified Onity Installer.

Community Organizations

Bryan volunteers for many community organizations including Big Brothers Big Sisters, F&AM #25 of Athens, OH, Amvets of America, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Benevolent & Protective Order of Elks, Fraternal Order of Moose, and Fraternal Order of Eagles.
