Chad Cummins
Sales & Service Center

Responsibilities

As an Inside Sales Representative for Atlas Door and Hardware, Chad Cummins assists walk-in and phone customers with takeoffs and quotes to ensure customers have the materials and information to accurately complete each project. Chad also assists with estimating, technical support and scheduling of installation jobs and service calls.

Chad joined Atlas Door and Hardware in 2013 and has 22 years of commercial construction experience, including door and hardware sales, commercial contractor sales, finish carpentry work and installation of cabinets, doors and hardware.

Areas of Expertise

Chad's extensive product knowledge of door and hardware lines, finishes, configurations, specifications and installation processes as well as hands-on experience helps ensure that Atlas customers receive the correct materials, complete orders and the technical guidance to complete new installation or door and hardware replacement projects.
